QUO VADIS?

“Where are you going?” – the words spoken by Peter to the Lord as he met Jesus returning to Rome to be ‘crucified again’ as Peter fled his own persecution. This is the name of a programme for young adults (17+) which takes place in the Eyre Hall of the Archdiocesan Offices (next to the Cathedral) on Thursday evenings during Lent from 7.00 until 9.00 pm. This week's theme is “Extreme Makeover – Soul edition”. All young adults are very welcome for this time of prayer and reflection led by NET ministries (a group of American/Canadian young people working in Glasgow this year to strengthen the faith of their peers.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PARISH COORDINATOR FOR SAFEGUARDING

Anyone dealing with vulnerable adults or children must have an up to date PVG.
I need to have these completed and returned to the diocese by Wednesday 9th April 2014. I will be in the meeting room on Sunday 6th April 2014 before and after 9am and 11am masses. The main groups involved are the Children's Liturgy, Eucharist Ministers, and the SVDP. I have completed some forms and given out forms to others. I will make contact with these groups by telephone over the weekend. Unlike previous schemes a PVG only needs to be completed once. If you have a PVG scheme number from another organisation or employer can you please email this to me as you do not need to fill in a form. Should Sunday not be suitable and you wish to make another time or discuss anything please contact me on 07901603692 or patricia@sthelenslangside.org.uk

Items needed to verify the forms are:- Passport or Photographic Driving License, Bank statement, credit card statement or utility bill.
Kindest Regards
Patricia Weatherall
