EASTER CELEBRATIONS

Thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to the beautiful celebration of our Easter liturgies. We offer our prayers and best wishes to Neil Tracey who was baptised, confirmed and made his First Communion at the Easter Vigil.

GLASS 'CRY CHAPEL' AREA

Older parishioners are reminded that this area is primarily for parents with small children who should always have priority for a seat in this area. If you choose to sit in this area then please be patient with children and encouraging to parents who are bringing their children to Mass. Finally, please also remember that this area is part of the Church and, as such, there should be silence, reverence and less conversation before Masses.

FIRST COMMUNIONS

Firs Communion will take place on 1st June. There will be parish preparation sessions on the three preceding Saturdays.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

There is no children's liturgy today. It is hoped that it will resume very soon when our PVG checks are complete.

CEMETERY MASS

You are invited to attend the celebration of Mass at Saint Conval's Cemetery on Sunday 27th April 2014 at 2.00 pm. The principle celebrant will be Bishop John Keenan. Please pass this information on to anyone who has loved ones buried at Saint Conval's Cemetery.

WEEKLY OFFERING ENVELOPES

If you have not already done so, you are kindly asked to collect a set of envelopes and to write your name and address on the list provided against the number of the set you have taken.

EXPOSITION

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will resume on Tuesday 29th April.

GLASGOW LIVING THEOLOGY

A course for everyone interested in deepening their knowledge of the Christian faith and in developing their personal reflection on Christian living and belief.
