PARISH LIFE

When was the last time you had a look at the parish website?

Go to www.sthelenslangside.org.uk and click the 'about' tab at the top of the page for lots of information you might not have known about your parish. In that section you will find our parish mission statement which sums up what we would wish for Saint Helen's:

"Our parish life centres on the Eucharist in which we celebrate the presence of the Risen Lord among us. We will strive to make everyone welcome and will support one another through the liturgy, prayer, education, service, social events and the simple enjoyment of being together".

You are reminded that there are suggestion boxes at the back of the Church which you can use to put forward any ideas you might have about how our parish can better fulfil these core aims. Thank you to those who have already made suggestions. If you care to leave your name and contact details, we will keep in touch with you and let you know how your suggestion can be progressed. You are reminded that the minutes of the meetings of the Parish Council are available to view on the dedicated notice board at the back of the Church and at: www.sthelenslangside.org.uk - why not also check us out on Facebook we really want to spread the word about everything that is going on at Saint Helen's. Thank you!

THIRD WORLD GROUP THANKS

The group would like to thank all those who came along to their dance on 29th April. Also to the Jean family and David Thomson (DJ) for all their help. The amount raised was a magnificent £540

LISBON LIONS ANNIVERSARY MASS

The Archbishop will celebrate Mass in Saint Mary's Calton on 20th May at 11.00 am as one of a series of events to mark the 50th Anniversary of Celtic's European Cup triumph in 1967. The occasion will not only mark the footballing achievement but also celebrate the club's founding values as a club open to all at the service of the needs of the community since its foundation in 1887. The Moderator of the Church of Scotland will be represented by Rev. Ian Miller. All welcome!

PSALM

Psalm 32:1-2,4-5,18-19

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;

for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.

Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp,
with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.

The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

The Lord looks on those who revere him,

on those who hope in his love,

to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 2:4-9

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus said: 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

No one can come to the Father except through me.'

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. You know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?' Jesus said: 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me. If you know me, you know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.' Philip said, 'Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.' 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip,' said Jesus to him 'and you still do not know me? To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, "Let us see the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself: it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work. You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason. I tell you most solemnly, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.'

FIRST READING

Acts 6:1-7

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them. The
