

FORTY HOURS ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

We have the privilege of our annual Forty Hours Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which begins after the 11.00 am Mass next Sunday, 11th June. The programme will be as follows. Please try to fit in some time before the Blessed Sacrament:

Sunday 11th: Exposition from after the 11.00 am Mass until Mass at 5.00 pm. During the 5.00 pm Mass the Sacrament of the Sick will be offered for those who wish to receive it.

Monday 12th: Exposition from after the 10.00 am Mass until Evening Prayer and Benediction at 7.30 pm. The visiting preacher will be Mgr. Hugh Bradley, parish priest of Holy Cross and General Secretary of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland.

Tuesday 13th: Exposition from after the 10.00 am Mass until Evening Prayer and Benediction at 7.30 pm. The visiting preacher will be Father Paul Gargaro, parish priest of Saint Jude's and Saint John Ogilvie's and Vice-Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Glasgow.

WELCOME

We welcome back Father John Clark who will be with us from Monday to Friday this week while Monsignor is off for a few days.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Our Parish Pastoral Council is beginning to look for new members. Please take one of the sheets available at the back of the Church to find out more about what's involved and how to nominate yourself or someone else. Monsignor Paul will discuss any nominations with the Chair of the Pastoral Council and then appoint the new members according to the particular skills that we need at the moment. In particular we are keen to have someone with good secretarial and administrative skills to help keep the meetings well organized. If this is you, please pick up a sheet and speak to Monsignor Paul.

S.E.N. MASS

The Archbishop will celebrate the annual Mass for parents and children with special educational needs in Saint Andrew's Cathedral on Wednesday 14th June at 7.00 pm. This is always a very joyful and uplifting occasion to which all family, friends and teachers are invited.

We are delighted that some young people from the latest Scottish NET Team will be visiting the parish in two weeks time, on 17th June. They will speak at all the Masses and appeal for your spiritual and financial help in promoting this amazing ministry for young Catholics. The mission of NET Ministries Scotland is to encourage young people to love Jesus and embrace the life of the Church. NET Ministries has only been in Scotland for the last few years where they have already made a big impact giving retreats in our Catholic schools. More details in next week's bulletin language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 103(104):1,24,29-31,34

Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your riches.

Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

You take back your spirit, they die,

returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created;

and you renew the face of the earth.

Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

May my thoughts be pleasing to him.

I find my joy in the Lord.

Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Second reading

1 Corinthians 12:3-7,12-13

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same

God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:19-23

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.' After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

First reading

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native
