A few months ago we welcomed some youngsters from NET Ministries Scotland to our parish. They were very grateful for the generous financial support they received from their appeal. Thanks to support like this, a new team of ten young people arrived in Glasgow last week and will begin giving retreats in our schools encouraging young people to "love Jesus Christ and embrace the life of the Church". Archbishop Tartaglia, issuing a warm message of welcome to the team, looked forward to their ministry to our young people in the year ahead. Please remember these young people in your prayers and also, when you can, spare a little money for their ongoing support (there are wall-boxes at the back of the Church).

RCIA – BECOMING A CATHOLIC

"RCIA" stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and it's how we describe the way we accompany people who want to explore baptism in the Catholic Church (or coming in to full Communion with the Church if they are already a baptised Christian). Sessions will be starting soon and are completely without any commitment other than the desire to find out more about the Catholic faith. If you are interested, please speak to Mgr. Paul or drop him an e-mail. If someone you know has been thinking about it, please encourage them to do the same. There's nothing to lose and everything to gain!

PARISH RETREAT

We will have a Parish Retreat on Saturday 28th October beginning with a simple lunch together at 1.00 pm and concluding at 5.00 pm. It will be led by Father John Clarke (a well-kent face at Saint Helen's!). Please save the date in your diary and look out for more details next week.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and
teach me:
for you are God my saviour.

In you I hope all day long because of your goodness, O Lord.

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from
of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me.

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who
stray,
He guides the humble in the right
path,
He teaches his way to the poor.

SECOND READING

Philippians 2:1-5

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit;
but everybody is to be self-effacing.
Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, So that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!
If anyone loves me he will keep my
word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people, 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?' 'The first' they said.
Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 18:25-28

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: 'You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this,
he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24(25):4-9

R/ Remember your mercy, Lord.
