

CARING SUNDAY NEXT WEEK
 Next Sunday is 'Caring Sunday' in our Archdiocese when there will be a second collection for the Saint Nicholas Care Fund (formerly the Pastoral Care Trust). This is our own Archdiocesan charity which supports local good causes with small grants. If you have not already done so, please take a pack from the back of the Church which gives information about how your money is used. It's a difficult time of the year financially for many people, but please be as generous as you can.

TRANSPORT TO MASS
 There are a few places available on the bus which picks people up and brings them to the 11.00 am Mass. If you know of someone who would appreciate this, please speak to a member of the SVDP

THIRD WORLD GROUP
 Our Third World Group do a power of work raising money for so many great projects. Their numbers have declined and they are very keen for new members. Interested? Please speak to Mgr. Paul, Frances Sermani or Helen Connell.

AGAP EVENTS
 Please see the range of events being arranged by AGAP for December at their website: www.agap.org.uk

LUNCHTIME RECITAL
 in Saint Aloysius' on Saturday 16th December from 1.30 pm until 2.30 pm

CHRISTMAS CONCERT
 By Saint Andrew's Cathedral Choir in the Cathedral on Thursday 14th December at 7.00 pm

"PEACE AND QUIET"
 An opportunity to reconnect with the real spirit of Advent at Our Holy Redeemer's Church House, South Bank Street, Clydebank on Saturday 16th December from 10.15 until 2.15 pm. Please book by e-mailing: oonaghcoultras@gmail.com

Save the date! Our annual Advent Service, especially for the younger members of the parish community will be at 7.00 pm on Tuesday 19th December with mince pies, etc. afterwards in the hall. If your child would like to participate by doing a reading or helping with the singing, please speak to Chiara or one of the children's liturgy leaders. Or if you are a parent accompanying a child to the service – we need some adult readers too!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY VOLUNTEERS
 The Children's Liturgy provides a wonderful service allowing children to participate in the Liturgy of the Word at a level appropriate to them. We are in need of further helpers to continue to make this possible. Either parents/carers who would accompany the children through to the hall, or leaders who would work on a four week rota. Please speak to one of the children's liturgy leaders or to Mgr. Paul if you are willing to help. (Our usual protocols for those working with children will apply).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 84(85):9-14(Advent)

R/ Let us see, O Lord, your mercy, and give us your saving help.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace,
peace for his people.

His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven.

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps.

SECOND READING

2 Peter 3:8-14

There is one thing, my friends, that you must never forget: that with the Lord, 'a day' can mean a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day. The Lord is not being slow to carry out his promises, as anybody else might be called slow; but he is being patient with you all, wanting nobody to be lost and everybody to be brought to change his ways. The Day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then with a roar the sky will vanish, the elements will catch fire and fall apart, the earth and all that it contains will be burnt up. Since everything is coming to an end like this, you should be living holy and saintly lives while you wait and long for the Day of God to come, when the sky will dissolve in flames and the elements melt in the heat. What we are waiting for is what he promised: the new heavens and new earth, the place where righteousness will be at home. So then, my friends, while you are waiting, do your best to live lives without spot or stain so that he will find you at peace.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Lk3:4,6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight, and all mankind shall see the salvation of God.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 1:1-8

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah: Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way. A voice cries in the wilderness: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight. and so it was that John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey. In the course of his preaching he said, 'Someone is following me, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals. I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.'

SECOND SUNDAY OF Advent

FIRST READING

Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11

'Console my people, console them' says your God. 'Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for, that she has received from the hand of the Lord double punishment for all her crimes.' A voice cries, 'Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord. Make a straight highway for our God across the desert. Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low. Let every cliff become a plain, and the ridges a valley; then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.' Go up on a high mountain, joyful messenger to Zion. Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem. Shout without fear, say to the towns of Judah, 'Here is your God.' Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him. The prize of his victory is with him, his trophies all go before him. He is
