

JUSTICE AND PEACE

There is a pastoral letter this weekend from Bishop William Nolan, president of the Scottish Catholic Bishops' Justice and Peace Commission. The Letter picks up on the Pope's message for last week's World Day of Prayer for Peace and focuses on the plight of refugees.

There is also a retiring collection in support of the work for justice and peace in Scotland. Again, despite the many demands on your charity at this time of the year, please give something if you can.

PRO-LIFE COLLECTION

Thank you for your generosity in last week's retiring collection for pro-life causes which amounted to almost £600

TRANSPORT TO MASS

There are a few places available on the bus which picks people up and brings them to the 11.00 am Mass. If you know of someone who would appreciate this, please speak to a member of the SVDP

NORMAL LITURGY SCHEDULE

Our normal Liturgy Schedule (see front of bulletin) resumes this week. Much gratitude is due to the many people who worked so hard to make our Christmas liturgies so successful.

FEAST OF SAINT MUNGO

The Feast Day of Saint Mungo (or Saint Kentigern) is on Saturday 13th January. To help a greater number of people to celebrate our city's patron, the Archbishop has transferred the Feast to Sunday 14th, so next Sunday the normal readings and prayers will be replaced by those for the Solemnity of Saint Mungo. Have a Happy Feast Day!

ECUMENICAL CELEBRATION

An Ecumenical service honouring Saint Mungo will take place in Glasgow Cathedral (High Street) on Sunday 14th January at 4.00 pm – all welcome!

WESTERN CATHOLIC CALENDAR

The new edition of the Western Catholic Calendar is on sale in the stall, priced at £3.20

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 71(72):1-2,7-8,10-13

R/ All nations shall fall prostrate before you, O Lord.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 3:2-3,5-6

You have probably heard how I have been entrusted by God with the grace he meant for you, and that it was by a revelation that I was given the knowledge of the mystery. This mystery that has now been revealed through the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets was unknown to any men in past generations; it means that pagans now share the same inheritance, that they are parts of the same body, and that the same promise has been made to them, in Jesus Christ, through the gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt2:2

Alleluia, alleluia!

We saw his star as it rose and have come to do the Lord homage.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 2:1-12

After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judaea during the reign of King Herod, some wise men came to Jerusalem from the east. 'Where is the infant king of the Jews?' they asked. 'We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage.' When King Herod heard this he was perturbed, and so was the whole of Jerusalem. He called together all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, and enquired of them where the Christ was to be born. 'At Bethlehem in Judaea,' they told him 'for this is what the prophet wrote: And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, you are by no means least among the leaders of Judah, for out of you will come a leader who will shepherd my people Israel.' Then Herod summoned the wise men to see him privately. He asked them the exact date on which the star had appeared, and sent them on to Bethlehem. 'Go and find out all about the child,' he said 'and when you have found him, let me know, so that I too may go and do him homage.' Having listened to what the king had to say, they set out. And there in front of them was the star they had seen rising; it went forward, and halted over the place where the child was. The sight of the star filled them with delight, and going into the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh. But they were warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, and returned to their own country by a different way.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise, shine out, Jerusalem, for your light has come, the glory of the Lord is rising on you, though night still covers the earth and darkness the peoples. Above you the Lord now rises and above you his glory appears. The nations come to your light and kings to your dawning brightness. Lift up your eyes and look round: all are assembling and coming towards you, your sons from far away and your daughters being tenderly carried. At this sight you will grow radiant, your heart throbbing and full; since the riches of the sea will flow to you, the wealth of the nations come to you; camels in throngs will cover you, and dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; everyone in Sheba will come, bringing gold and incense and singing the praise of the Lord.
