

- As well as our usual 10.00 am Mass there will be an additional early morning Mass at 7.30 am each Monday, Wednesday and Friday during Lent.
- Every day there will be Stations of the Cross after the 10.00 am Mass
- Each Tuesday evening during Lent at 7.30 pm in the hall we will have a different presentation on Our Lady. Each session begins with a professional DVD presentation from various locations around the world associated with Our Lady. Then there will be some time of prayer and reflection, concluding with a cup of tea. Last Tuesday there was a very good turnout. If you didn't manage to attend please come along this Tuesday.
- Please take an AGAP LentFest brochure for details of events to help you make a good Lent. Next event being hosted here at St Helen's:
Mungo: Legend of Glasgow's Saint (a new play by Stephen Callaghan about our city's patron) on Saturday 17th March in the hall at 7.30 pm.
 Tickets for this event available in the sacristy or at the door on the night (price £5).

Our retiring collection for the support of our sick and retired priests continues this Sunday. Next weekend, however, will be the annual second collection for the work of SCiAF. Please be aware that the Government will double what has been collected, so anything you can give has twice the value! This applies both to next Sunday's Collection and the Lenten 'Wee Box' Campaign.

...IN AID OF SCiAF

There will be a Quiz Night in aid of SCiAF in the parish hall on Saturday 24th March beginning at 7.30 pm. Entry is £5 BYOB!

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

It is mandatory that all our PVG registered volunteers participate in Safeguarding Awareness Sessions. Level 1 Safeguarding training is being held in the Curial Offices, 196 Clyde Street on Thursday 22nd March from 7pm until 9pm. This training is aimed at new PVG registered volunteers and also PVG volunteers working with children and or vulnerable adults who have not previously attended the 'Safeguarding Awareness' sessions organised by the Archdiocese. During the recent safeguarding audit, it was noted that the majority of our PVG volunteers have now completed training. If you have not completed training, you are reminded that this is a mandatory requirement to remain as a volunteer working with children or vulnerable adults. To register please contact Jillian Whalley Safeguarding administrator or Claudia

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Psalms 118(19):8-11

R/ You have the message of eternal life, O Lord.

The law of the Lord is perfect,
it revives the soul.
The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,
it gives wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart.
The command of the Lord is clear,
it gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is holy,
abiding for ever.
The decrees of the Lord are truth
and all of them just.

They are more to be desired than
gold,
than the purest of gold
and sweeter are they than honey,
than honey from the comb.

SECOND READING
1 Corinthians 1:22-25

While the Jews demand miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom, here are we preaching a crucified Christ; to the Jews an obstacle that they cannot get over, to the pagans madness, but to those who have been called, whether they are Jews or Greeks, a Christ who is the power and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Jn 11:25, 26

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

I am the resurrection and the life,
says the Lord;
whoever believes in me will never die.
Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

GOSPEL
John 2:13-25

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money-changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said. During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him.

FIRST READING
Exodus 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17

God spoke all these words. He said, 'I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 'You shall have no gods except me. 'You shall not utter the name of the Lord your God to misuse it, for the Lord will not leave unpunished the man who utters his name to misuse it. 'Honour your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that the Lord your God has given to you. 'You shall not kill. 'You shall not commit adultery. 'You shall not steal. 'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. 'You shall not covet your neighbour's house. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or his servant, man or woman, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is his.'
