MARY'S MEALS WILL BE VISITING THE PARISH THIS WEEKEND. THEY WILL UPDATE US ON THEIR WORK, COLLECT BAGS OF TEXTILES FOR THE RAGS TO RICHES CAMPAIGN AND SELL RAFFLE TICKETS

Please note that the van is only able to come to collect the bags of clothing at the Vigil, 9.00 am and 11.00 am Mass. It will NOT be available at the 5.00 pm Sunday evening Mass. So please make sure all bags are dropped off in time for the 11.00 am Mass.

EXPOSITION

The regular schedule of Exposition and Confessions resumes this week.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

At a meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council last week, new office-bearers were elected. We express the gratitude of the parish to the new Chair, Attracta O'Reilly and the new vice-chair, Clare Gonella. They join Grace Cohen (secretary) in offering their time and talents at the service of the parish. Please remember the suggestion boxes in the porches of the church where you can make suggestions for about ways that the parish can better fulfill its mission as a worshipping and evangelizing community. Previous suggestions included the redecoration of the porch areas. This is in hand. While these practical considerations are important, please also think of ways that we could improve as a Catholic community of faith!

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

We are hoping to start a little children's choir which would contribute occasionally to the liturgy of the 11.00 am Mass – perhaps beginning by singing a piece at the First Communions coming up on 20th May. If your child is interested, please come in to the meeting room beside the sacristy after the 11.00 am Mass next Sunday (22nd April).

ROSARY ON THE COAST

This is a new initiative to pray for 'Life, Faith and Peace' for our world. It takes place on the last Sunday of April (29th) at 3.00 pm and parishioners are invited to gather at a coastal location to pray the rosary. Already groups are signed up to pray at Largs and Troon. If there is sufficient interest, we will try to arrange a bus. Please indicate your interest on the list at the back of the Church. Even if this does not prove possible, why not take a family trip 'doon the water' that day and join in the initiative. More details can be found at www.rosaryonthecoast.co.uk

COLLECTION ENVELOPES

A small number of people still have to collect their new supply of collection envelopes. You can do so after Mass from the sacristy.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 4:2,4,7,9

R/ Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.

When I call, answer me, O God of justice;

from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me!

It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves;

the Lord hears me whenever I call him.

'What can bring us happiness?' many say.

Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

SECOND READING

1 John 2:1-5

I am writing this, my children, to stop you sinning; but if anyone should sin, we have our advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, who is just; he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away, and not only ours, but the whole world's. We can be sure that we know God only by keeping his commandments. Anyone who says, 'I know him', and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, refusing to admit the truth. But when anyone does obey what he has said, God's love comes to perfection in him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. Lk24:32

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, explain the Scriptures to us.

Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 24:35-48

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread. They were still talking about all this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, 'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they still could not believe it, and they stood there dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes. Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

FIRST READING

Acts 3:13-15,17-19

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses. 'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.'
