

BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY

Mass on Monday will be at 12 noon since it is a bank holiday.

DAY FOR LIFE

The annual Day for Life is celebrated next weekend. On this day we recall some aspect of Life and how its dignity is threatened. This year the theme is connected to human trafficking. There will be a retiring collection next Sunday. In our Archdiocese the collection is split between various pro-life causes, including the Cardinal Winning Pro-Life Initiative. Please be generous if you can to support their wonderful work.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Would you welcome the opportunity to follow the teaching and example of Christ and imitate his love for the poor? St. Helen's members of The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) extend a warm welcome to any parishioners who may be interested in finding out more about how they strive to alleviate need – the need of the lonely, the poor, the elderly and the vulnerable. Such means include undertaking home and hospital visits, assisting less able parishioners to attend mass and distributing material help to those in need. Why not come and join us at one of our weekly meetings held each Monday evening from 7.30pm in the Meeting Room (next to the sacristy) to find out more? Just turn up, or alternatively, contact Danny O'Brien on 0141 632 0350 for more information. "To serve the poor is to serve Jesus" – Pope Francis

TRANSPORTATION TO MASS

A bus goes round the parish and brings some of our less-able parishioners to the 11.00 am Mass. There are a number of spaces available and if you know of anyone who would benefit from this, please speak to Mgr. Paul or one of the pass-keepers.

S.E.N. MASS

The Archbishop will celebrate the annual Mass for children with special educational needs and their families on Monday 18th June at 7.00 pm

SAFEGUARDING

The Church's new Safeguarding Policy comes into force on 21st May, the new Feast of Mary, Mother of the Church. This includes our new parish safeguarding manual, entitled In God's Image. There is a pastoral letter from the Bishops' Conference available at the back of the Church which describes the new policy in greater detail and gives the details of all the steps that have been taken to ensure our churches are safe environments for young people and vulnerable adults. We take safeguarding very seriously at Saint Helen's and no volunteer will be allowed to work with any vulnerable group without a PVG and without having undergone formal training.

GLASGOW: THE WELCOMING CITY

The annual celebration of the history and cultural diversity of our city at the City Chambers on Sunday 10th June at 3.00 pm

READERS' ROTA

The new Readers' Rota is available from the meeting room. Over the coming summer months, please try to find a replacement if you cannot manage your allocated slot.

THANKS

Mrs Sadie Mellon would like to thank Saint Helen's parishioners and the Wednesday Club for all their prayers and Mass cards received during her recent loss.

beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 32(33):4-6,9,18-20,22

R/ Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.

By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke; and it came to be. He commanded; it sprang into being.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

SECOND READING

Romans 8:14-17

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. Rv 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 4:32-34,39-40

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors – all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?'

'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: the Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth
