

NOVEMBER: MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November Lists are available at the back of the Church. Those whose names you include in your list will have a remembrance at Mass every day in November.

Thursday 1st November is the Solemnity of All Saints and a holy day of obligation. Masses are at 7.30 am, 12.30 pm and 7.30 pm

Friday 2nd November is the Feast of All Souls

MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED IN THE LAST YEAR

While Mass is celebrated every day in November for all our faithful departed, we will celebrate a special Mass on Saturday 10th November at 12 noon for all those whose funerals were celebrated in Saint Helen's since last November. All those who gave permission for their contact details to be used will receive an invitation. There will be a cup of tea in the hall after the Mass. Please note that on this Saturday only there will be no 10.00 am Mass. Even if you lost someone close to you in the course of the year and their funeral did not take place at Saint Helen's, you are welcome to come and light a candle and pray for them with the parish community.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION:

Thank you so much for your wonderful generosity in last week's Mission Sunday Collection which amounted to more than £2,200 – this is particularly amazing given all the demands that have been made on your generosity recently.

FATIMA FILM

Thanks to all who helped organised last week's Fatima Film evening and to so many who came along to pack our church hall. We know many were disappointed in not being able to get a ticket, so we'll let you know if we hear of it being screened somewhere else.

GOODBYE TO FR. TONY

We take our leave this weekend of Father Tony, who returns to Poland on Tuesday to continue his studies. It has been a joy to have him among us for such a long period this summer and we sincerely hope he will be back again next year.

RCIA

Stands for the 'Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults' and is the way we help someone to discern whether they are being called into the life of the Catholic Church, either through baptism or by formal reception if they have been baptised in another Church. If you, or someone you know has been thinking about becoming a Catholic, please contact Mgr. Paul for a no obligation chat about what's involved.

SENIOR CITIZENS' CLUB

Our Senior Citizens' Club, now renamed the Glasgow Golden Generation meets every Wednesday at 12.30 pm in the hall. All welcome.

SAINT MARGARET'S ADOPTION SOCIETY

are currently looking to recruit prospective adopters. If you have ever thought about adoption as a way to grow your family and would like to know more, please contact our office for a chat with one of our friendly and experienced staff on 0141 332 8371 or email info@stmargaretsadoption.org.uk.

CATHOLIC NURSES GUILD:

The Annual Day of Recollection will be held on Saturday 17th November from 10.30am – 4pm at the Schoenstatt Centre. The cost of the Day is £20, for further information and booking please telephone 01475 725252 or 0131 665 3639. All health care workers and friends are welcome.

MUSICIANS URGENTLY NEEDED:

The music group are looking for new members to help lead the music at the 11am Mass on Sundays. If you are a musician or a singer willing to help please chat to a member of the group after 11am mass or pass your details to Monsignor Paul or Deacon Kevin. Come on! There must be some musicians out there!

REQUIEM MASS

In Saint Peter's Cemetery, Dalbeth for all those who are buried there or in other local cemeteries or whose final committal took place at Daldowie Crematorium on Sunday 4th November at 3.00 pm. In case of inclement weather the Mass will be celebrated in Saint Joseph's, Tollcross.

ORGAN RECITAL

Under the auspices of the Glasgow Society of Organists on Saturday 17th November at 2.00 pm in Christ the King Church. The organist will be Martin Baker of Westminster Cathedral and the programme will contain a range of classic pieces for organ. Donation programme is £8 which includes refreshments.

PSALM

Psalms 125:1-6

What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
it seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said:
'What marvels the Lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 8:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
anyone who follows me will have the light of life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout: 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!' See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here. They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.
